

February 3, 2010

Several weeks ago I spoke with you about the real source of true Joy and the joy of the Lord. I tried to get you to talk with me about the parallel between our joy and our personal relationship with Christ. As our joy grows (through our relationship with Christ) so do many other areas of our lives. One of the areas that naturally grows is a desire to be like Christ - pursue the things of Christ - commitment to the goals of Christ. Christ, even as a little boy, was intent on being in the Father's house listening to the teachings and answering questions - about the Father's business (Luke 2: 41-50). There are many directions which we could take this discussion. However, we must begin with: are we sitting, listening and properly responding to the teachings of our Lord. What about personal time with Christ? What about taking advantage of Sunday School/ Discipleship courses/ being here for the preaching of God's word in our morning and evening worship services? If we are to be like Christ - have the heart beat of Christ running through our DNA (if you will), we must spend time with the Heavenly Father. The more we know Christ - come to see Him in all His glory - realize all He has done for us though we are wretched and unworthy, the more our personal worship will grow. And yes - - the greater our joy will be in Christ Jesus.
